12/17– Zoo Lights
12/24– Christmas Eve Service
1/10– City Group

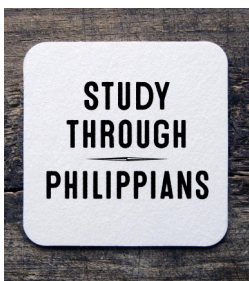

Hey guys I hope you all had fantastic Thanksgivings! Now that Thanksgiving has come and gone Advent is in full swing. Advent is easily my favorite time of the year. It means Christmas parties, Handel’s Messiah, Christmas Eve service and special Advent services each week directing our attention to Christ’s birth and anticipating his second coming.

We have a lot going on the life in of our church and with our Young Adults group the coming weeks so be sure you take time to read through this all and mark your calendars for these great events.

Things You Need To Know

We have City Group this Thursday night at 7 pm at the home of Dan and Amy Harrist. This will be our final City Group of the year and we will conclude our study through the book of Judges. In order to celebrate the final City Group of the year we will have a campfire to hang out around and roast s’mores. See you there!

Join us for our Sunday School class at 10 am in room 213 on Sunday Mornings. We are currently looking at the book of Philippians with careful attention to Paul’s theology of joy and how to live a life with deep affections for Christ and His Word.

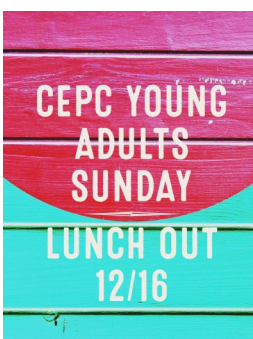

Upcoming Events

Our annual Christmas party is December 7th at 6:30 pm in the home of Richard and Susan Colquitt. This is always one of my favorite Young Adult events all year. We will have a nice catered meal, White Elephant gift exchange, Christmas beverages and more. I hope you will come and even invite a friend. If you have any questions about the details let me know.

CEPC’s presentation of Handel’s Messiah has become an Advent favorite for me and Lindsay. If you have never been before I cannot stress enough how much you need to come this year and experience this incredible performance. Even if you don’t think you are a fan of classical music I promise you will find it well worth your time. Plus several of our Young Adults are performing and I know they would love your support.

Join us for the monthly Sunday lunch out at Fuzzy’s Pizza on Antoine (the original one). We will head over there right after 2nd service on December 16th. If you have any questions let me know.

Quote of the Week:

“This is the terror of mercy: God requires of a man that he should believe; now mercy doth help to perform the duty commanded. The Lord, as He requires the condition of thee, so He worketh the condition in thee.” - Thomas Hooker
